

Morgan Nitz

Mrs. Ollenburg

Writer's Workshop Hour: 3

24 May 2016

Poetry Assignment #3

Poem A:

Feelings of Love

It all starts with a magical kiss

then love rushes inside of you.

It hits you with a splash of bliss

then leaves you with thoughts of not knowing what to do.

Love may sting you like a bee

or send rushing signals up to your head.

But with you being able to see you will know that this feeling won't cause you to feel dead.

Love is a treasure

and it's something no one can attempt to measure.

Poem B:

Missing Someone

You sit alone and stare out the window.

That special someone is gone like the wind, wishing you could take back all that you said and just make it go BOOM!, and vanish.

Leaves are fall and drip on the ground below

Your heart just thuds every time a leaf hits.

The feeling will not go away and all you can really do is just pray.

You may feel like no one is there but that special someone is always watching over you.